

The daffodil is the symbol of hope in the battle against cancer.

To us, it is a bright and hopeful symbol of support for people living with cancer. It says no one has to face cancer alone, and it promises we won't give up until cancer is defeated. April is Daffodil Month and to kick start this campaign we're offering workplaces across the Yukon a chance to pre-order fresh cut flowers for your workplace.

Orders are due by Wednesday, March 25, 2020
